

GENERAL INFORMATION

The previous editions of the Otology Class for young ENT's were held in Amsterdam (2014), Madrid (2015) and Antwerp (2017).

The purpose of this course is to offer young ENT-doctors thorough education about the principles in otology on an international level, close to home and affordable in price.

The main goal is to discuss a variety of otologic topics in a friendly and interactive setting.

Contents

A lot of essential otologic topics will be discussed in an interactive setting. The emphasis of this course will be on the right otologic diagnostic work-up as well as decision making regarding indications and contraindications for surgery. The course will be in English.
